

The Cuban Fund of Cultural Assets invites you to the 14th Edition of the International Fair of Craftsmanship, FIART 2010, to be held from December 9th to 19th in PABEXPO, Havana City, Cuba.

The Fair is meant for foreign artisans, and for Cuban artisans residing in the country, who are registered in the Creator's Record. To participate in the event, they must previously present a file containing a sample of the pieces proposed to be traded in the Fair. They must also present supported documents, issued by an entity of authority in the field of craftsmanship, to prove their work in the promotion and trading of craftwork.

Supporting documents must be sent in digital format by e-mail or submitted in printed version.

The Organizing Committee reserves the right to refuse admission of those products that do not reflect the craftsmanship and cultural identity of their respective countries.

The Organizing Committee will also award the FIART Prize.

Applications must be presented before October 30th, 2010.
